

A. Yes she did.

Q. And did you ever have any question about who owned the property where Sarah Norris lived?

A. No, I always took it for granted that she owned it.

Q. Was it known as Sarah Norris' property in the community?

A. Yes it was.

Q. To the best of your knowledge, information and belief, had Mrs. Norris lived on that property for some period of time?

A. I would say all of her life.

Q. All of her life, and she was an elderly lady you say when you first remember her?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And I take it then at that time there was a house of some sort on the property?

A. Yes it was.

Q. What sort of a house was it?

A. It was, I think it was log, it was all on one story.

Q. And that property was subsequently torn down?

A. Yes.

Q. When was that?

A. I'm not sure.

Q. Would it have been before or after Mrs. Norris died?

A. I think after, I'm not sure.

Q. And Mrs. Norris died when?

A. About 1943 I think.

Q. And during the entire period of time which you can remember, that is from about 1926 until she died in 1943, did Sarah Norris live on that land?

A. That's right, she did.

Q. Did she treat that land as her own land?

A. Yes she did.

Q. Was her possession of that land exclusive, that is did anyone else claim to own it?

A. Not that I know of.
